Some of My hobbies are painting with acrylic paints , baking goods, and being part of the drama class at school and choir. I am in Green Acres 4-H Chapter and this is my Third year in 4-H, and second year participating in Sacramento Barnyardbidders. This is going to be my Third year raising Swine in 4-H. This year I am raising a Dark cross pig clove . She is a gilt which means a non-breeding sow. Her name is Clove, and I am working on her to be market-ready. I have spent a lot of hours feeding, walking and grooming Clove . My goal for her weight is for her to be about 270 by fair day. I plan to raise a good quality product and she is being fed high-quality feed.
